

We Claim:

1. A method of processing a sensed image taken with a digital camera, including an auto exposure setting means, said method comprising the step of utilising the auto exposure setting from 5 said auto exposure setting means to process said sensed image to add exposure specific graphics to said image.